Analysis of Proposed Consent Order To Aid Public Comment

Summary: The Federal Trade Commission has accepted separate agreements, subject to final approval, from Dell Computer Corporation ("Dell") and Micron Electronics, Inc. ("Micron") (collectively referred to as "respondents"). The proposed consents resolve allegations that respondents created and disseminated computer lease advertisements that violate the Federal Trade Commission Act ("FTC Act"), the Consumer Leasing Act ("CLA"), and Regulation M.

Section 5 of the FTC Act prohibits false, misleading, or deceptive representations or omissions of material information in advertisements. In addition, Congress established statutory disclosure requirements for lease advertising under the CLA and directed the Federal Reserve Board ("Board") to promulgate a regulation implementing such statute—Regulation M. See 15 U.S.C. 1667-1667e; 12 CFR Part 213.

The proposed consent orders have been placed on the public record for sixty (60) days for receipt of comments by interested persons. Comments received during this period will become part of the public record. After sixty (60) days, the Commission will again review the agreements and the comments received and will decide whether it should withdraw from the agreements or make final the agreements' proposed orders.
